THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

A Celebration of Life

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Forever in Our Hearts

*Do not weep that she has gone,
for love like hers is never done;
in every sunrise, gold and wide,
her gentle spirit walks beside.*

*She planted joy in all she knew,
like sunflowers turning toward the blue;
though seasons take the bloom away,
the seeds of love are here to stay.*

*So when you miss her, look up high — she's in the warm and open sky, in laughter shared and tables spread,
in every grace and prayer she said.*

*Not gone, but gathered home in light;
and we who loved her, hold her tight.*

Forever your loving family
